Interesting Police Court

In police court this morning Burges Stewart had his hands full and then some. After a few drunks had been disposed of, he took up the case of Jim Vivian of Highland avenue, charged with disorderly conduct. The evidence was that near the corner of Twelfth and Schoonmaker, the prisoner met a man and wife, Americans, on their way home. Vivian assaulted the man and backing him against the wall of a house began searching his clothing, when he was interrupted by a policeman and placed under arrest. The prisoner had nothing to say in his defense. Burgess Stewart placed his fine at $17 25 which was paid.

Allen Jackson, alleged operator of a pool room at 1196 Schoonmaker avenue, was before the burgess on a charge of disorderly conduct and permitting gambling. About ten colored men were trapped last night in the place by Officer Cabe who produced evidence of the game in the way of money and dice, and some of the prisoners admitted having gambled in the place and lost money.

This place had been under surveillance by the local officers for some time and last night it seemed "the fruit" was ripe and the raid was made, a rear room being filled with colord men, who made a general rush, leaving some money and dice on the table

This is the second time within a short time this place has been pulled, although the proprietor-manager plead not guilty, the records proved he had on the previous arrest paid $25.00 and costs for the same of-

Ready for Big Day Whistles Signify Opening of Drive

The program for Sunday has been announced by Chief Marshal Hancock and all societies and people should give him the widest co-operation in making the opening of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign a great success. Indications point to good weather and with the speakers here, certainly the object will be fully obtained. After the parade, the speaking will be at the platform, Schoonmaker and Seventh street, where Dr. Marsh and Harrison Nesbit will address the American people Rev Graham will make the opening prayer and Rev. Jarvis the closing prayer. Mr. J. Howard Kelly will preside.

At the American express office, Mr H Dallas McCabe will preside, and Rev. Pazdrey and Rev. Gartska will address the Polish, Croations and Slovak people.

At the P. & L E. freight depot, Mr. Geo A Paff will preside, and Mr. Iatros and others will address the Italian, Greek, French and Belgian people.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock every mill whistle in the town will be blown. This is to indicate that the actual opening of the drive is on, and the committees are at work in the various sections of the town and throughout every industry. At 9 o'clock all solicitors will meet in the Foreign department of the Trust company where final instructions will be laid down. The slogan is $2,000,000 and if the returns of the Monessen Foundry & Machine company are any criterion, the town will easily lend that amount to Uncle Sam.

Rostraver township will also be on the move to surpass its quota of $1,350,000. This return will go through the Monessen committee.

Melford Anderson Writes Letter Stating he is O. K.

A letter from Melford Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Anderson, of McKee avenue, conveys the news that he is recovering nicely from injuries sustained several weeks ago while in France with the American Expeditionary Forces. Young Anderson was gassed while driving his ambulance and had to be removed to the army hospital where for forty days he was almost sightless. He has now fully recovered his sight and wrote the letter in his own hand. He is able to be about and expects soon to be discharged During his confinement, he says he lost several valuable articles, among them being his wrist watch. The letter relieves a lot of anxiety on the part of his parents and friends. He saw Joe Martin and Lawrence Moore a few days before he wrote the letter which was September 8th.

News of Death

A telegram was received at noon today by Mrs. Joseph Craig of Fifth street, announcing the death at 11:30 of Robert O. Truxal at McKeesport Deceased was about 36 years of age and death was caused by gastritis, he having been seriously sick about two weeks.

Deceased was a former Monessen man, a roller in the Tin mill several years, and had only been away from here about a year. He is survived by his wife, who was a Monessen girl, Marie Mallis, a niece of Mrs. Craig. He also leaves three little daughters, Sarah, Helen and an infant daughter.

Patriotic Window Displays

Monessen never before in her history had so many handsomely decorated store windows as today and all in honor of and to help push the Fourth Liberty Loan "over the top."

This unanimity of forces in getting a fine and practical war servic window display is in charge of the local or Monongahela Valley branch of the National Association of Window Display Men, under the leadership of the president, Samuel A.Lewis, of the Famous Clothing store, who deserves a word of commendation for the ceaseless and untiring manner in which he has worked all week in order to make a success of this branch. Sam has helped many merchants trim their windows and designed and planned for others, and his efforts have been attended with unthought of success when one traverses our streets and notes the beautiful and practically designed displays.

Each different, all decidedly patriotic, and none containing a vestige of advertising relative to their business. It is to be regretted that there are a few stores that have not complied with this great national request and patriotic movement, as the call comes to all regardless of their being or not being members of the Window Trimmers association.

The displays of the merchants who are truly patriotic and have devoted one big window entirely to the advancement of the Fourth Liberty Loan are also attractive and sugestive that one can not justly be described without naming all, so unstinted credit is given to all store managers and window trimmers for this great war service.

It is said thar in New York City, great credit was given the Window Displays in helping push the Third Liberty Loan to its wonderful success.

Also in this drive persons who have been in Pittsburgh this week say that the window war display at McCreary's Joseph Horn's, Kaufman's, Kaufman & Baer, Boggs & Buhl, and other big stores are something grand, the window work of each store costing, some of them, thousands of dollars and Monessen, considering her store strength is surely "doing her bit."

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

The American people are once more up against the necessity of backing with money our boys in the trenches. All their sacrifice and risk of life and limb will go for nothing, if we are not willing to provide them the equipment. Courage and skill amount to nothing unless backed up by the most modern and extravagantly costly outfit. War is a terribly expensive proposition. Unless we are willing to meet its bills generously, we must lie down and let stronger nations rule over us.

The more we spend on equipment, the fewer our losses of men will be. Unless we are willing to stand staggering losses among our boys, we must pour out the money without stint.

The man whose country, whose home, whose democratic institutions are being protected by our young men, cuts a very poor figure in the community unless he is willing to pay the cost of the protection. When a man offers his life to protect you, if you won't pay for his gun and his keep, you are a pretty poor sort of a citizen.

As the size of the army increases, the bill for equipment grows. Therefore the government is asking for about one third more money than was raised on the last loan. It is an enormous sum, but really only a small fraction of our wealth. It can be raised if we will all take hold of it with a willingness to do our fair share.

People can not expect to go through these times and live just as usual. If we can't raise money for bonds any other way, we must cut down our expenses and go without things we are used to. Only thus can we hold up our heads in the community, or be regarded by our neighbors as showing common decency. Those who refuse to take hold and do their fair share are slackers for whom everyone must feel contempt.

THE STUDY OF FRENCH

Great numbers of our young men in the service are now digging away on books of French grammar and conversation. It is an opportunity for them to acquire a vital branch of education free. Formerly it would have cost them a good deal of money.

We used to have to pay high tuition fees to get the chance to attend classes conducted by some native of France. The majority of French students worked under American teachers who had never crossed the ocean, who could not have understood a Frenchman talk, and could have made themselves understood in Paris with great difficulty.

Now the young soldier will find a real instructor in French in the person of every peasant he meets, and in every polu with whom he swaps army gossip in the trenches.

It is of course not an easy thing to learn the French language. The pronunciations include a number of sounds distinctly unlike anything in our tongue. These can be acquired by anyone willing to take pains. The language has nearly as many irregularities as English. The student who wishes to learn it correctly must spend a good deal of time working over his irregular verbs and idioms.

The greatest difficulty is the rapidity with which the Frenchmen speak. A great many students who learn the language here can read it with ease, yet they would make out hardly a word in a sentence when a native gets to reeling the stuff off his high speeded tongue. But even if a man merely puts time into it so he can learn to read simple newspaper French, it will be a good education for him and give him much help "over there." The lingo will come to him gradually as he hears it. When he returns he will have a gift that many of our best educated people lack. Also the soldier who can speak French will be of more use in the army and will stand a better chance of promotion.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Again the Government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first unbidden dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our Government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

The American people are once more up against the necessity of backing with money our boys in the trenches. All their sacrifice and risk of life and limb will go for nothing, if we are not willing to provide them the equipment. Courage and skill amount to nothing unless backed up by the most modern and extravagantly costly outfit. War is a terribly expensive proposition. Unless we are willing to meet its bills generously, we must lie down and let stronger nations rule over us.

The more we spend on equipment, the fewer our losses of men will be. Unless we are willing to stand staggering losses among our boys, we must pour out the money without stint.

The man whose country, whose home, whose democratic institutions are being protected by our young men, cuts a very poor figure in the community unless he is willing to pay the cost of the protection. When a man offers his life to protect you, if you won't pay for his gun and his keep, you are a pretty poor sort of a citizen.

As the size of the army increases, the bill for equipment grows. Therefore the government is asking for about one third more money than was raised on the last loan. It is an enormous sum, but really only a small fraction of our wealth. It can be raised if we will all take hold of it with a willingness to do our fair share.

People can not expect to go through these times and live just as usual. If we can't raise money for bonds any other way, we must cut down our expenses and go without things we are used to. Only thus can we hold up our heads in the community, or be regarded by our neighbors as showing common decency. Those who refuse to take hold and do their fair share are slackers for whom everyone must feel contempt.

THE STUDY OF FRENCH

Great numbers of our young men in the service are now digging away on books of French grammar and conversation. It is an opportunity for them to acquire a vital branch of education free. Formerly it would have cost them a good deal of money.

We used to have to pay high tuition fees to get the chance to attend classes conducted by some native of France. The majority of French students worked under American teachers who had never crossed the ocean, who could not have understood a Frenchman talk, and could have made themselves understood in Paris with great difficulty.

Now the young soldier will find a real instructor in French in the person of every peasant he meets, and in every poilu with whom he swaps army gossip in the trenches.

It is of course not an easy thing to learn the French language. The pronunciations include a number of sounds distinctly unlike anything in our tongue. These can be acquired by anyone willing to take pains. The language has nearly as many irregularities as English. The student who wishes to learn it correctly must spend a good deal of time working over his irregular verbs and idioms.

The greatest difficulty is the rapidity with which the French men speak. A great many students who learn the language here can read it with ease, yet they would make out hardly a word in a sentence when a native gets to reeling the stuff off his high speeded tongue. But even if a man merely puts time into it so he can learn to read simple newspaper French, it will be a good education for him and give him much help "over there." The lingo will come to him gradually as he hears it. When he returns he will have a gift that many of our best educated people lack. Also the soldier who can speak French will be of more use in the army and will stand a better chance of promotion.

WASHINGTON

Again the Government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it will become clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first mile now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our Government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

Nation Wide Reputation

Everybody should hear Mrs. Marguerite Rice at the Star theatre Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The speaker has a nation wide reputation as a public speaker and reform worker and comes very highly recommended by pulpit and press. Her subject will be "Scribes, Pharisees and Hypocrites."

Mrs. Ric, it is said, delivers one among the finest eulogies on "Our Soldier Boys," that has ever been heard, and refers touchingly on the war work across the water and her praise and word picture of the boys going over the top, and those who fall by the way, severely wounded or their voices forever stilled, who give up their lives for the love of the homeland and universal world peace.

Mrs. Rice makes a feature of prison and slum work in the larger cities, and these she talks of interestingly, convincingly and to the point. Her talk embodies practical truths, graphically told, filled with solemnity, pathos and love sprinkled here and there with lots of wholesom humor. Don't forget the hour—8 o'clock Sunday evening at the Star theatre.

Blackheads, blotches and pimples are generally caused by the improper action of the bowels. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea regulates the bowels, cleans the stomach, clears the complexion from the inside—nature's way—"Get that healthy, happy look."—Craig's drug store. adv.

"They Shall Not Pass!"

—:o:—

When the countless German hordes swarmed towards Verdun, outnumbering the brave French soldiers and overwhelming the advance positions, for a short time the whole world thought the cause of France was doomed.

But above the roar of guns and the noise of battle the cry went up from the heroic defenders. "Ils ne passeront pas!"—

"They shall not pass!"

The American boys plunged into the maelstrom of flood and storm and now the slogan is "On to Berlin."

Help our boys to get there.

We are now privileged to again help our Government. Buy Bonds.

Pauline Frederick at the Star Monday

In her newest Paramount picture, "Madame Jealousy," Pauline Frederick has occasion to use a huge horned owl for "atmosphere." It is a well known fact that the star has no use for peacocks and it was thought that her dislike might extend to owls. Not so, however, for she alone of all the cast, seemed to have a calming effect on the great bird. He ruffled his feathers haughtily when others approached, and made queer sounds of disapproval, but when Miss Frederick talked to him or sang softly, he shut his eyes and went peaceably to sleep. "Madame Jealousy" which was written by George V. Hobart and directed by Robert Vignola, and which boasts an specially well chosen cast, including Thomas Meighan, Frank Losee, Elsie McCloud and others, is to be shown at the Star theatre on Monday. 1t

fense. Today Burgess Stewart made the assessment $37.95.

Each of the accused men who appeared before the burgess was fined $4.95, while the others sacrificed their forfeits.

The Tennessee Restaurant, Lige Phillips, proprietor, was raided by officers headed by Martin Cable about 11:40 last night and a large number of colored people apprehended on the charge of disorderly conduct and gambling Cable was assisted in the arrest by Constable Brandies and Special Officer Smith of the P. & L.E. R. R. Co. A general break was made through windows, rear doors, and two men were found hidden in the lavtory and two under a counter.

The allegtion was that the front door was locked, but the defense stated that it closed tightly and was not locked.

The arresting officer found money on a table in a rear room, two dice on the floor under the table and five cards. The defense was represented by Daniel Reamer, who asked dismissal of the case on the ground of lack of actual evidence. The burgess dismissed the case, returning all forfeits.

Date Set For National Lottery

Monday, September 30, was set by Provost Marshal Crowder as the date for the national draft lottery to determine the order, in the classes to which they be assigned, of the 13,000,000 men from 13 to 45, who registered for selective servise September 12.

The drawing will take place publicly at the Senate office building and the numbers will be given to the press and the country as quickly as the list can be printed and put into the hands of the boards by mail.

It will be necessary to draw one at a time, approximatelly 17,000 capsules, containing the serial numbers and it will require approximately 26 hours to complete the task.

The first drawing of numbers was flashed to the country by wire as the capsules were taken from the bowl, because, under the system then prevailing, the order of numbers actually indicated the order in which men were called for service. The latter creation of the classification systems, however, has entirely altered the situation and the order of umbers now only indicates a man's order in his class, and several considerations decide his class.

The effect of the drawing simply means that every man who knows he is fit for military service, and has no valid reasons for deferment, can expect to be ready to be called for duty, quite irrespective of where his number comes out.

When the question of telegraphing the order of the numbers all over the United States was fully investigated it was found that to do so would have entirely occupied all the facilities for distributing news for at least 24 hours continuously. It meant that for 24 straight hours, possibly more, not a single word of news of the war or events at home could have been published by the newspapers. The plan of having the government use its own machinery—through the boards—to distribute the numbers was then evolved, and it brought the added advantage of making the list, when finally published, an official one on which boards and registrants could absolutely depend.

Under the plan as perfected, the provost marshal general's office will distribute the official complete master list of numbers to the district boards by mail as fast as they can be turned out of the government printing office. The boards will be instructed to give them out to newspapers and the public as fast as they receive them. Newspapers can make their own arrangements to get the lists from the boards and the registrants can depend on the lists as published in the newspapers, which will be a few days after the drawing.

Removes blackheads, softens rough skin, clears the blood, brightens the eys, sweetens the whole system. Nothing helps make a pretty face, winsome smile, as Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Try it tonight. 35c. Craig's drug store. adv.

GOODBYE, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen and bloated feet and limbs, weakness, lassitude, dizziness, nausea, that tired, worn-out feeling, nervousness, sleeplessness, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney disease and allied derangements has stood the test fo rhundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day; they will keep you feeling fine and prevent a return of your trouble.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the labratories at Haarlem, Holland. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes. adv.

Benefit for Red Cross

That Monessen people are willing to help in anything that benefits the Red Cross is being demonstrated by the way the Lady Maccabees are selling their tickets for the play "Lighthouse Nan," which is to be given at the High school auditorium, Oct. 3rd.

One lot of tickets has already been disposed of and a second lot ordered from the printer. Every cent of the proceeds, except the actual expenses, will go to the Red Cross, as the percentage paid the Roscoe Dramatic club goes to their local chapter.

The specialties which will be given are well worth the price of admission, aside from the play.

Jack Keefer, who is famous as a star performer at the Elks minstrel, will present a specialty act. Miss Mary Butler, Monessen's talented child entertainer, will have a singing and dancing act.

Miss Ellen Myford violinist with Miss Elsie Janavitz, accompanist, always pleases the audience.

The Liberty Bell girls will be something a little new and a little different. Miss Marion Lewis will be soloist and the "Bells" will be represented by Misses Irene Jenkins, Kathryn Nixon, Hazel Plumm, Gladys Engle, Ellen Myford, Ruth Myford, Perl Newhouse, Irene Frye, Helen Claybaugh, Mary Butler and Viola Laverne Thomas. Miss Elizabeth Treasure is pianist.

The Roscoe Dramatic club has an all star cast and the program will be printed next week. Tickets may be bought at Kirk's Hilltop drug store or from any of the Lady Maccabees.
